A CUT AT THE COUPONS. General Wickham's Resolution Adopted by the Senate Yesterday. AGAINST INTERNAL REVENUE.

Colonel Evans's Resolution Favoring the Repeal of the System Agreed to by Both Houses.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS LAST NIGHT.

FRIDAY, December 14, 1883. The Senate was called to order at 12 M. by Mr. Hurt, the President pro tem.
Prayer by the Rev. W. B. McGilvray.
Mr. Hubard rose to a question of per-ham (Mr. Hubard), coming as they do with especial fitness from a gentleman on that nde of the house.

"It is well known to all the senators that the President protem, has been grossly slandered by that paper, which makes an imputation wholly without foundation of fact—utterly destitute of truth. The Senator who presides for the time over this body expressly disclaimed any such exercise of authority as charged on

The gentleman from Buckingham (Mr Hubaro) has made a proper rebuke of the defamer and a fair statement of the facts." INTERNAL-REVENUE-THE EVANS RESOLUTION

The resolution adopted by the House, on motion of Mr. Thomas J. Evans, request-ing our Representatives and instructing our Senators in Congress to vote for the immediate and unconditional repeal of the nternal-revenue laws, having been con nunicated to the Senate, was passed.

Be it resolved by the Honse of Delegates (the Senate of Virguila concurring). That our senator in Congress be instructed and our Representative at Congress be requested to procure the amount toned and immediate abolition of the internativement system of the United States Government this method of collecting taxes being greatly in jurious to the public interest and a special burde upon the people of this State.

NO TELEPHONE. The following was received but not COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA, LAND OFFICE, RICHMOND. December 14, 1883.

Senate:

In response to your resolutions of inquiry in reference to establishing telephone exchanges with the State Capitol. I respectfully submit the within communication of the city manager. The business and enterprise of the Richmond Telephone Company has been cheeked and returded—
First, by the objections of property-owners to the use of their howelops; and Secondly, by refusal of the city authorities to allow the creciten of poles. And having no assurance that the necessary wires could be placed, the general office has issued orders to decline all new subscribers and applications. If deemed important, however, the Richmond manner will refer the matter to the general office at New York and ask an exception in favor of the State Capitol.

Mr. Bailey urged that an additional clerk need not be employed; that a committee clerk should be assigned to the duty.

Mr. Koiner said that in justice to the outgoing and incoming officers both an expert would have to be employed. The work must be done accurately, and a good accountant was needed therefor.
